

The Pacific Woodwind Quintet is preparing for its first public concert on campus.

Quintet Makes Debut

The University's newly-formed Pacific Wind Quintet will present works of Mozart, Reicha, Paul Hindemith and Jean Francaix on Wednesday, March 21 at 8 p.m. in the MacLaurin Auditorium.

This will be the first public performance of the Quintet which is in residence at the University and consists of faculty members and graduate students. With one exception, all the musicians are also members of the Victoria Symphony.

The players come from varied backgrounds.

Eileen Gibson, oboe and Tim Paradise, clarinet, have Master of Music degrees from Yale University and both have received Fulbright Fellowships for study in Europe.

Jesse Read, bassoonist, has played with the San Francisco Opera Company and the Metropolitan Opera National Company.

The Quintet's French horn player, Dick Ely, has played horn in the Denver and Dallas Symphony Orchestras. He received his Master of Music degree from Illinois University.

Flutist, Lanny Pollet, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music and is active in writing arrangements for the woodwind group. With Jesse Read, Pollet will receive his Master of Music degree from the University of Victoria this spring.

The Quintet has already been recorded on tape by the CBC which sponsored a well-received concert at the University of British Columbia earlier this month.

Kites to Fly On Campus

The coming of Spring will be celebrated on the campus with the Fourth Kite Festival on Sunday, March 18.

More than 3,000 kites were flown at the last Festival and a record crowd is expected to respond to invitations sent out by the Alma Mater Society Activities Council to schools, civic officials, press and radio personnel.

The programme starts at 1:45 p.m. with a drop by University skydivers and at 2 p.m. the Mission Ridge band will strike up to provide a background for registrations. Prizes will be awarded for almost every imaginable category of kite including Siamese fighting kites, and a kite hospital will be set up for minor repairs!

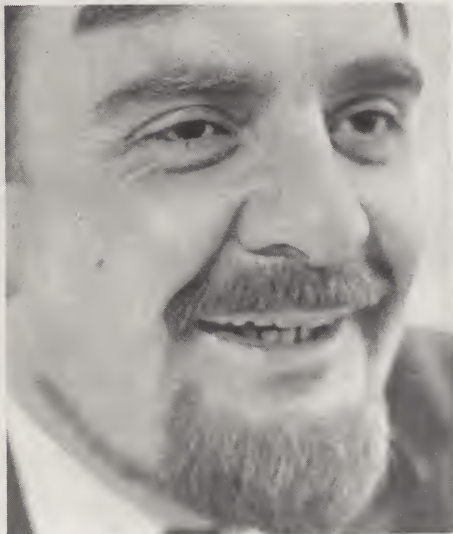

Trophies have been donated this year by Munro's Bookstore for the most artistic kite and Kelly-Deyong Sound for the best overall performance.

Chuck Dilba of the Kite Festival committee says that Premier Dave Barrett has been invited to hold a special session of the Legislature in the playing fields on this day because "the weather forecast indicates sunshine with little wind . . ."

Childhood Journey

A one-man show will be staged at the Phoenix Theatre on March 22 at 3:30 p.m. when actor-director David Kemp presents the dramatic anthology of poetry and prose "A Child Growing Up".

Kemp is Associate Professor of Drama at Queen's University and Chairman of the Theatre Arts Department, Faculty of Education. He has selected authors for the two-hour programme whose work covers the gamut of childhood experience. They range from Ben Johnson to Oscar Wilde, from Ogden Nash to Dylan Thomas.

Kemp, who is co-sponsored on his visit to this University by the Faculty of Education and the Theatre Department, holds a London University Diploma in Dramatic Art and is a Licentiate of Trinity College, London. He has worked with Brian Way's Children's Theatre Company, the largest specialist children's centre in the British Isles and is still a regular director with the Company.

Chess Club

A quick response to a suggestion by chess enthusiast, Remi Michelot, has resulted in formation of a University Chess Club which meets every Thursday at 7 p.m. in Clearihue Building, room 128. Beginners are also welcome. For more information, telephone John Roche, Local 489.

Visual Arts students Stuart Stark, Richard Yates and Greg Thatcher are among those artists whose work is being exhibited in the Greater Victoria Art Gallery.

Art Honors

Four graduating students of the Visual Arts Department have had work accepted by the Twenty-third Annual Vancouver Island Jury Show which opened March 7 at Victoria Art Gallery.

Stuart Stark, Richard Yates, Greg Thatcher and John Russell had work displayed. Entries from 1972 Visual Arts graduates, Rosemary Flynn and Kathleen Jennings were also accepted.

Stark and Yates have also had success further afield. Simon Fraser University has purchased a drawing by Stark, and Brant Art Gallery, Ontario has bought a silk-screen print from Yates.

Cablevision Special

A two hour special programme entitled "Your Shrinking Dollar" dealing with inflation and the consumer will be shown on Cable 10 tonight.

Sponsored by the Division of Continuing Education and with the co-operation of the Economics Department and Victoria Cablevision Ltd., the show will feature an illustrated lecture by Dr. Robert Cherneff who recently completed a special series on the general topic of inflation for the Division.

Cable 10 has assisted with the production of video-taped interviews with people on downtown streets.

The first part of the programme will feature excerpts from these interviews followed by a formal lecture by Dr. Cherneff. Following the lecture there will be a panel discussion and later in the programme, an opportunity for viewers to phone in and take part in the discussion.

Moderator for the discussion will be R.R. Jeffels, Director of Admissions. Panel members will be Lois Smith, regional consumer consultant for the Federal Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs; Norma Andrews, President of the Victoria Branch, Consumers Association of Canada; Alf Pettersen, Victoria Chamber of Commerce; and Larry Ryan, Victoria Labour Council.

War Games

Rehearsals for "Oh What a Lovely War" to be presented by the Theatre Department in conjunction with the Victoria Theatre Guild are clipping along under the direction of John Krich.

The cast numbers only 16 but the play, written by Joan Littlewood, includes numerous characters, necessitating many costume and accent changes!

Susan Pappajohn of the Music Department is musical director for the show which is the annual combined effort of the University and the Theatre Guild.

Tickets go on sale March 26 at Eaton's Box Office and the play will run from March 29 to April 7.

Road Races

Ring Road Races will be held Friday, March 30 for athletes and also for those who can complete the 1.19 mile course in a "wagon" of their own concoction.

The thoroughfare will be closed to ordinary traffic from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. during the race.

Sponsored by the Alumni Association, the events include a Foot Race for speed, a Time Trial (one circuit of the Ring closest to a chosen time) and a Weird Wagon Race for teams providing the strangest mode of transport capable of carrying three people over the course (no internal combustion engines are allowed).

Three trophies and numerous prizes will be awarded by a panel of local sports announcers.

The Chancellor's Trophy rewards the top flight runner making the fastest time and the President's Trophy is awarded to someone fit enough to be competitive whose speed has slipped a little. The Alumni Trophy is presented to the businessman who began jogging to battle the bulge.

Entry forms can be obtained at the SUB office or "P" Hut Athletic Office (number 23) and must be returned by Wednesday, March 28.

Environment Talks

An International Science Education Symposium held Saturday, March 10, was keyed to "Education for the Wise Use of Our Environment".

Attendance was extremely good with as many as 90 in some workshop sessions.

Organized by the Science Education section, Faculty of Education, the discussions were prefaced with an address by Paul Presidente of the Wildlife Branch, Department of Recreation and Conservation, entitled "The Impact of Environmental Education in B.C."

Morning and afternoon topics concerned subjects such as nuclear power, population problems, the McCauley Point Outfall ("The World Cesspool: Our Ocean Environment"), secondary school environmental programmes and the new B.C. senior secondary biology curriculum.

Scholarship Tea

The University Women's Club will honor scholarship and bursary winners at a Schol-

Formal acceptance of historic documents now on loan to the University of Victoria McPherson Library, was made at a ceremony March 5 in the headquarters of the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association. University president H.E. Farquhar accepted a token transfer of the archives from Association President Augustine Low and past-president Sam Lum. Many of the items have already been classified by Dr. C.Y. Lai of the University's Geography Department and provide a valuable clue to the struggles which beset Chinese immigrants in the pioneer days.

arship Tea in the Upper Lounge of the Student Union Building on March 31.

Ann Margaret Fischer, Victoria, has been named to receive a scholarship of $200 awarded to a leading woman student in First Year Arts. This scholarship was established in 1917.

The Rosalind A. Young scholarship of $200, named in honor of the Club's first President, has been won by Judith Nanne Jones of Powell River.

A Camosun College student, Mrs. Janette Fuller, Victoria, is this year's recipient of the Club's Diamond Jubilee Bursary of $100, awarded to a mature student returning to full or part-time studies.

Tickets to the Scholarship Tea cost $1.50 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. L.D. Hall, 385-0622 or Mrs. A.M. Cupples, 477-4805.

NORAD Examined

The role of NORAD in Canadian defence policy will be the theme of a conference on March 26 sponsored by the History Department in co-operation with the University of B.C. Political Science Department and the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.

Discussion will be based on topics such as "Deterrence and Defence: or why do you want to be able to shoot down bombers?"
